5 MOST DELICIOUS INTERIORS

For those looking for a feast for the eyes, Atlanta offers an array of options with truly delicious interiors. Aria's owner and chef, Gerry Klaskala, enlisted Seiber Design to completely redo his buzzy Buckhead space into a playful and sophisticated dining room lathered in charcoal gray, canary yellow and pale green. At The St. Regis Atlanta's Atlas, the restaurant's art curator, Carolyn Carter, has hand-picked the 30 pieces for Atlas' newest art installation: a selection from The Lewis Collection, which tells the story of Japanese artist Leonard Tsuguharu Foujita through his own works and those of his closest colleagues, including Modigliani, Picasso and Chagall. Restaurateur Justin Anthony has relocated his beloved Buckhead hot spot Yebo Beach Haus, but with a splashy new coastal-chic interior thanks to interior designer and wife Kelly. Leave it to Ford Fry to infuse the Four Seasons Hotel Atlanta with a cool, cinematic vibe thanks to newly debuted Bar Margot. Sexy new speak-easy Himitsu sparkles with dazzling decor courtesy of London-based Tom Dixon and interiors as fabulous as the fare. Aria, 490 E. Paces Ferry Road NE, 404.233.7673, aria-atl.com; Atlas, 88 W. Paces Ferry Road NW, 404.600.6471, atlasrestaurant.com; Yebo Beach Haus, 111 W. Paces Ferry Road NW, 404.869.1992; Bar Margot, 74 14th St. NE, 404.881.5913, barmargotatl.com; Himitsu, 3050 Peachtree Road NW, purabieto.com/himitsu

THE ART OF FINE DINING Atlas' rotating roster of museumworthy masterworks proves the perfect complement to your meal.

KROG STREET MARKET

Located right off the Atlanta beltline, Krog Street Market offers an array of shops and eateries, ranging from charcuterie at The Cockatrice to Guy Wong's cult classic Gu's Dumplings to swanky sushi spot Craft Izakaya. With fine dining options like Top Chef alum Eli Kirshtein's brasserie, The Luminary; and Ford Fry's Tex-Mex temple, Superica, rounding out the selection, there is something sure to please any palate or price point. 99 Krog St. NE, 770.434.2400, krogstreetmarket.com

PONCE CITY MARKET

Ponce City Market is quickly becoming one of Atlanta's premier destinations for good shopping and even better eats. With almost 30 shops and more on the way, you're sure to work up an appetite after a day of retail therapy. Luckily, an array of options await, including Biltong Bar, Brezza Cucina, City Winery, El Super Pan, Hop's Chicken, H&F Burger, Minero, The Mercury and W.H. Stiles Fish Camp. It's no wonder locals have dubbed this food hall the culinary capital of the South. 675 Ponce de Leon Ave. NE, 404.900.7900, poncecitymarket.com

WESTSIDE IRONWORKS

This open-air dining and retail hub may be the new kid on the block, but it's sure to be your next go-to spot for food and drinks, boasting newly debuted hot spots like Barcelona Wine Bar and Tom + Chee. To soak in the season, we suggest stopping by O-Ku Atlanta's new second-floor patio for a Dapper Snapper roll ($14) and a 2010 Bacardi Mojito Challenge Winner Jasmanian Devil cocktail ($10) to accompany the view of the midtown skyline. 1085 Howell Mill Road, jamestownlp.com
